Narrow Guage Railroad.

A few days ago we met with Mr. MeBride, of the Greene County Iron Works, who was returning from New York, where he secured about $12,000 toward the construction of the thirty-inch wooden railroad from Greeneville to Haysville, the location of the Greene County Iron Works. The distance is eleven miles, and when visiting the works last summer, Mr. Gleason, the Superintendent, told us he would enter into a contract to build the road for $20,-100 .. Of this $12,000 has been secured in New York, several thousand in Greeneville and Greene county, and the Iron Company will probably take the remainder. It is intended to use the wooden rail for four or five years, and then strip with iron. The value of the work is scen at once when we know that this one company is turning out ten tons of metal per day, and the New York half as much.-Bristal

Meeting of the City Conneil.

The Board met last night pursuant to adjourn ment, Mayor Jno. S. Van Gilder in the chair. Present-Aldermen Swan, Mitchell, Shepard, Ross, Henderson, Pat Sullivan, Glass, Waters, M. D. Sullivan, Boyd, Smith, Newman, Kennedy, Atkin, an l Livingston.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Mayor Van Gilder then read a very able and interesting address on the present and future of Knoxville, showing the glorious destiny he beieved awaited our city. in consideration of our natural advantages, and the benefits in store from railroads built and projected and river communication, and from a sound administration of financial affairs.

BILLS PRESENTED. The judges and clerks of election were ordered to be paid $2 each for holding the same. Bill for taking care of Caroline Moffatt, S8,

Edmund Leath, street work, $23; ordered Fire Company, implements, &c., $9; ordered

S. J. Turner, repairing engine, $4; ordered A bill of Messrs. Patton and Harrel, asking to be reimbursed for actual expenses incurred in apprehending burglars was presented, but

FIRE AND POLICE.

Alderman Shepard said that he had not had time to attend to his official duties, but made some practical suggestions regarding the fire department, and thought a fire bell was needed. There was some complaint about one of the police, but had concluded to take no action in Swan, when Alderman Mitcheli pressed the the matter at present.

Alderman Swan was satisfied that Policeman Burchell had not done his duty and would not do so in future, and that he ought to be discharged.

Alderman Pat. Sullivan thought Burchell had done his duty on Monday night, and that if he was discharged, others ought to be as well. He had seen him, and knew he did well.

Messrs. Swan and Shepard thought he ought o be discharged, and called on Chief Marshal Waddle for proof.

He stated that Burchell had failed first in ar- to partnership, dating from January 1st, 1871. resting two men, and for dereliction of duty on | The style of the firm will be the same as hereseveral occasions. He regretted the necessity of tofore, W. W. Woodruff & Co. performing an unpleasant duty, but was sworn Considerable debate ensued, when his expulsion was moved, but the motion was lost. The Mayor read a communication from the

Knoxville Turn Verein, (which was published in the DAILY CHRONICLE of the 17th inst.) On motion of Alderman Henderson, seconded by Mr. Kennedy, the document was order to be returned to the chairman of the committee of the Turn Verein as disrespectful to the Board. Alderman Mitchell asked him to withdraw it. which he did.

Alderman M. D. Sullivan moved to lay the communication on the table. Alderman Kennedy didn't think it necessary to lay it on the table, as the Board did not wish it, either for reference or any other purpose. The question was then put, and the motion to lay on the table carried.

The motion to expel Mr. Burchell was then revived, which, after three ballots, was earried. | Jas. S. Boyd, Alderman Shepard thought that there should J. R. Waisman, be an inspector of buildings, to examine chimneys, &c., in regard to preventing fires. Referred to the Chief Marshal.

Alderman Livingston asked regarding the efficiency of E. B. Shields, colored policeman. Chief Marshal Waddle thought he hardly had a trial, but on Monday night acted like Burchell, and was in the house all night.

Alderman Ross had heard of charges against Policeman Badgett, and asked what grounds there were for such rumers.

The Chief Marshal was called on, who stated that during the trial on Tuesday merning, Badgett at first had refused to answer the questions propounded, though at length had done so-had sworn several oaths, and acted indiscreetly, but otherwise had made an efficient of-

Alderman Sullivan moved to go into the election of a Street Boss. Alderman Kennedy informed him he had saved the Board that trouble by oppointing one, as was done last year. Alderman Sullivan thought that two or three men should not run the whole corporation. Mr. Sullivan revived his motion to elect a street boss. Carried.

Alderman Atkin nominated Wm. Hayes. Alderman Sullivan nominated Thos. Long. Mr. Haves was elected on the first bailot.

The report of the Chief Marshal regarding the special election for levying a tax of one mill on the dollar for city free schools, was received. Alderman Swan stated that there were, to the best of his belief, two hundred illegal votes cast-there were not twenty-five leasers in the city-at the Market House alone there were from fifty to seventy-five illegal votes cast, in his mary 23d, in the Episeopal school-room, on

The amount of taxes paid to the county by Knoxville tax-payers would be $8,001, and he hoped a committee would be appointed by the City Council to confer with the County Commissioners in regard to paying it over to the City Treasurer to establish schools, as it would be enough without the one mill voted.

Alderman Henderson set Mr. Swan aright. If such an arrangement could be made with the County Commissioners, it would not be so much, and the amount would be based on scholastic population, not actual adult population. He read a letter from Dr. Sears, giving $1,000 if the city raises $2,000 for school purposes; or $2,000, if the city would raise $9,000.

Mr. Swan said he was in favor of education, but he saw no need of voting such a surplus. He reiterated the charge of illegal voting, and claimed that the people had not voted understandingly. They did not know the county had appropriated anything, or they would have voted against the measure.

Mayor Van Gilder read a communication from the Commissioners of the Workhouse, asking the co-operation of the Board to make Alderman Swan moved the appointment of s . ree. No orders will be filled, unless accompanances. The Mayor then appointed Messrs. Smith, Ross and Waters.

Alderman Kennedy made some statements regarding drummers, showing how they had evaded the law.

On motion, made and carried, the City Tax Collector was instructed to report the lots and parcels of land in the corporate limits on which taxes were due to the Circuit Court.

A motion to adjourn was made. Mr. Kennedy remarked that it would be good opportunity for those who talked so strongly for free schools to buy real estate cheap, as two years' taxes were due on some of the property and now speculators could get bargains. Dr. Humes had been such a free school man as Mr. Mitchell, who was appointed to settle to wish men specially detailed to watch the balwith the merchants regarding taxes, asked lot boxes to see that no fraudulent votes would be cast, yet they had been, as Mr. Swan knew. On motion of Alderman Swan, the Finance He then moved that the election be set aside and the question submitted to the property-owners again.

Alderman Shepard stated that it was rather late to urge such objections-that if they knew persons were voting illegally, it was not only their privilege but their duty to challenge them, and asked why they had not done so? Mr. Kennedy's motion was seconded by Mr

Knoxville Wholesale Market. Review of the Produce Market for the week ending January 23, 1871. CORRECTED BY J. W. GAUT. MARKET SQUARE.

During the past week an active damand has prevailed for corn and oats, and some inquiry has been made for bulk meat and bacon. The general trade in produce promises favorably. But one difficulty presents itself: Many of our producers are in the habit of watching the market, and when they see an active demand prevails for any article of produce, they at once become speculators, i. c. they hold for higher prices, forgetting that produce dealers have, at the expense of much hard labor and at a considerable outlay of money and time, induced orders for produce based upon prices before the active demand sprung up. See the result. The orders are either delayed or filled at prices above the views of Southern purchasers, and they are dissatisfied and withdraw their orders. Very soon we report a dull market-no demand-and there will be no demand again until we can work prices down as far below their actual value as they were above under the holding up policy. Now, who is the sufferer in the end? Would it not be better for the farmer to get a fair market price for his produce-to put his grain, bacon, hay, and in fact everything he wishes to setl, out of his way, get the money and invest it? We would not be understood as dictating to the farmer, much less for him to be governed by our opinions in selling his produce to us. It is the principle we complain of. The practice of holding for higher prices when there is no reasonable probability for an advance equivalent to the loss by depreciation of weight and the interest on the money, has, as it will continue to do, depressed trade and caused a scarcity of money when it should be
